

Fall 2010

3

Introduction: Immigration, Housing and Homelessness

Carlos Teixeira and Barry Halliday

8

Newcomers in the Canadian Housing Market

Daniel Hiebert

16

The Residential Crowding of Immigrants to Canada

Michael Haan

22

Addressing the Housing Needs of Immigrants and Refugees in Canada

Sarah V. Wayland

28

Linking Immigrant Settlement, Health, Housing, and Homelessness in Canada

K. Bruce Newbold

32

Making Knowledge Matter: Mobilizing Homelessness Research through the Homeless Hub

Stephen Gaetz

36

Homelessness and Housing among Status Immigrant, Non-Status Migrant, and Canadian-Born Families in Toronto

Emily Paradis, Sylvia Novac, Monica Sarty and J. David Hulchanski

40

Seeking Affordable Homeownership in the Suburbs: A Case Study of Immigrants in York Region

Valerie Preston, Ann Marie Murnaghan, Robert Murdie, Jennifer Logan, Jane Wedlock, Uzo Anucha, Sandeep Agrawal, Silvia D'Addario and Min Jung Kwak

44

Exiting Homelessness: Comparing Foreign Born and Canadian Born Individuals and Families Over Time

Fran Klodawsky, Tim Aubry and Rebecca Nemiroff

47

Precarious Beginnings: The Housing Situation of Canada's Refugees

Robert Murdie

52

Legal Status, Place, or Something Else? The Housing Experiences of Refugees in Winnipeg and Vancouver

Kathy Sherrell

59

Poor Housing Outcomes among African Refugees in Metro Vancouver

Jenny Francis

64

An Uncertain Home: Refugee Protection, Illegal Immigration Status, and their Effects on Migrants' Housing Stability in Vancouver and Toronto

Priya Kissoon

68

Refugee Mental Health and the Meaning of "Home"

Laura Simich

73

The Housing Situation of Recent Immigrants to Montreal in Comparative Metropolitan Perspective: Contrasts and Convergences

Damaris Rose

77

Finding Housing in Montreal: A Study of Haitians in Rivière-des-Prairies

Sylvie Paré

83

Young People Living in Public Housing Projects: A Problem of Inter-Ethnic Coexistence?

Annick Germain and Xavier Leloup

86

Low Cost Housing: A Place of Social Integration for Immigrants?

Hélène Bohémier

90

Beyond the Four Walls: The Sainte Marie Neighbourhood as Seen by its Immigrant Residents

Myriam Bérubé

96

The Challenges of Increasing Diversity in Areas of Urban Decline: A Winnipeg Case Study

Tom Carter

100

Finding a Place to Call Home: The Challenge of Housing Security for Immigrants in Alberta

Jim Gurnett

104

A Road to Home: Working with Homeless Immigrants and Refugees

Carolina Gajardo