

SPRING 2014

- 5 Ten challenges schools in Quebec are facing ten years after the parent report
Jean-Pierre Proulx
- 11 When history becomes a battlefield. An analysis of history exams in Quebec (1970–2012)
Jean-Philippe Warren
- 16 Consolidation, bureaucracy and the public schools: the formation of the modern bureaucratic education State, 1920 to 1993
Paul W. Bennet
- 23 History of education in french-speaking Ontario: a historiographic review
Jean-Philippe Croteau
- 31 “They can’t take our ancestors out of us”: A brief historical account of Canada’s residential school system, incarceration, institutionalized policies and legislations against Indigenous peoples
Erica Neeganagwedgin
- 37 How do school principals in francophone minority settings perceive the factors shaping the relationship between schools and immigrant families?
Aïcha Benimmas
- 44 “Bend the twig early”:
Two centuries of preschool in Canada
Larry Prochner
- 49 Children’s Perspectives on the Past: Possibilities and Challenges
Amy von Heyking
- 54 Are canadian universities sustainable in the years ahead?
Paul Axelrod
- 58 New France through the learning lens
Michael Welton
- 63 The pedagogy of peace: education and the exigencies of life
Theodore Michael Christou
- 69 In search of the thinking classroom
Garfield Gini-Newman